

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
SIMON B. BUCKNER,
of Hart County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. W. HARRIS,
of Hart County.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION,
JESSE D. HARRIS, of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF LAND OFFICE,
THOS. H. CORRETT, of McCracken County.

SENATOR HARRIS' withdrawal speech has received many compliments and made him many friends among the delegates of the Convention.

The Democratic Primary election at Winchester last week resulted in the nomination of James P. Harris, Sr., as a candidate for the Legislature.

The Democratic convention which assembled at Louisville last week nominated Gen. Simon B. Buckner for Governor. Senator John D. Harris, in a very graceful speech, withdrew from the race and moved the nomination of Gen. Buckner by acclamation which was carried amid the greatest enthusiasm.

The Democratic Primary election at Winchester last week resulted in the nomination of James P. Harris, Sr., as a candidate for the Legislature.

At the August election the question of holding a constitutional convention will be again submitted to the people. This question has been voted upon several times but it has been unable to receive the required majority, partly due to the ignorance of the voters. The question should be discussed and explained so that all may understand the necessity of a revision of our constitution. Let our public speakers remember this and secure the stump for various candidates. The people of Kentucky want a change. They want our State to go forward in all those things that constitute her progress. We need more a change in our constitution than we do a change of parties or a change of officers. The Constitution requires only a majority vote of those voting at the annual election for representatives to the Legislature to secure the holding of the convention. This is a good law and perhaps the only one that could be adopted to guarantee a new constitution. We believe that there will not be any formidable opposition in August and that at last the old ossified constitution will be consigned to the shades of oblivion where it should have long been resting.

Members of the Democratic county committee of Madison County are requested to meet at the Second National Bank on Saturday, May 14th, at 2 o'clock P. M. A full meeting is requested as there is some business of importance to be transacted. All candidates for offices to be filled at the next general election are invited and expected to attend this meeting.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP

LANCASTER COURT.—J. D. Price reports about 250 (cents) on the market, nearly all sold at 25 cents to 31 cents; one milk cow brought $40; one young heifer $15. No mules or horses offered. The stallion show was one of the best we ever had. A larger crowd and a better court-day than we've had for six months.

A CARD.

We desire to express our thanks to the kind friends who assisted in preparing Mt. Pleasant church for the marriage of our daughter Florida to Stephen D. Harris on May 3rd, 1887. Mrs. and Miss G. B. M. Harris, Montague Park, Publisher, 22 Union Square, New York.

THE WINCHESTER DEMOCRAT.

The Winchester Democrat says: J. W. Owen & Son sold to R. E. Pace 100 lbs. of extra fine flour for four cents for July delivery. Kidd & Tribble shipped 250 hogs to Baltimore, for which they realized about five cents at the point. Stride Brothers delivered to Kidd & Tribble 875 hogs, weighing 217 pounds each, which were contracted for some time since at $4.50. Kidd & Tribble received of John D. Harris a lot of hogs for which they paid $4.80. R. P. Taylor & T. P. Prewitt bought of Wood, of Danville, forty yearling steers weighing about 800 pounds, at $35 per head.

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES.

Of the delightful liquid remedy, Syrup of Figs, commend it to all who suffer from Habitual Constipation and kindred ills. Being in liquid form and pleasant to the taste, harmless in its nature, strengthening as well as cleansing in its properties it is easily taken by old and young, and beneficial in its effects, and therefore the favorite family remedy, especially with the ladies and children, who require a gentle yet effective laxative. For sale by White & Stockton.

COLLEGE HILL.

Miss Elzlie Griffith's school has closed and she has returned home. Mr. W. S. Norris, of Cincinnati, spent last Sunday with her father's family.

MISS IDA COBB.

Miss Ida Cobb made a visit to our village last week that was "short but sweet."

MRS. G. S. WILLIAMS.

Mrs. G. S. Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Laura Butler, of Estill county.

MISS MOLLE MARLION.

Miss Molle Marlion has closed her series of meetings at Pithsburg and is now at home.

MISS ANNA COWSON.

Miss Anna Cowson, of Somerset, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Williams for some time, left on Monday. She will spend a few days in Richmond before returning home.

"THE SOCIAL GLASS."

"The Social Glass" at the Academy on Saturday evening was quite a financial success and will be played again next Friday evening, May 6th. The proceeds are to be disbursed for the painting of the Academy building. The enterprise is a laudable one and deserves a liberal patronage, and we hope that all who will contribute their mite to help the cause along.

WACO.

The Democrats of Elliston authorize me to suggest to the Democratic party of the county, that they meet at an early date in their respective districts, and then, each district select its delegate to represent them at the State Legislature without any reference to any aspirant, unless he should be the choice of such district. Also the voters attending these district meetings appoint delegates to meet at the Court-house in Richmond, on a given day, and select a good man, and if they should not agree upon one selected by any of the districts, let them find one upon whom they can agree. We are of the opinion that this plan will be successful.

MISCELLANEOUS.

In some neighborhoods in the rural districts, the country doctor with his saddle bags, and general readiness, was considered an important personage. But his occupation is gone. When a remedy is needed for coughs, colds and diseases of the throat and lungs the only cure for the "Country Doctor's" Honey of Day is readily obtained, used, and permanent relief secured.

ONCE UPON A TIME.

Once upon a time and not a long time ago either a man suffering with piles thought there would never be an end to his agony. But Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment dispelled that idea completely. To-day he is a healthier and wiser man, recommending to all sufferers with piles, the use of this incomparable remedy. "Go to him and do likewise."

OUR ADVICE TO YOU.

Our advice to you is not to catch a cold if you can help it, but having caught it rid yourself of it promptly by using the remedy known all over the world as "Doan's Kidney Pills." It is a simple preparation equally by nose for purity and efficacy. When used according to directions a positive cure is effected for coughs, colds, and diseases of throat and lungs.

THE ART AMATEUR.

The Art Amateur, a new and interesting series of illustrations, is now being published by the National Academy of Art. It is a series of illustrations, each of which is a reproduction of a famous work of art. The series is now being published in a series of small volumes, each of which is a reproduction of a famous work of art. RETROSPECT.

I am thinking to-day of my youth and of the air-castles bright and fair, When the world was full of truth, And death was a thing most rare.

OF THE MAIDEN I FONDLY LOVED.

A vision of beauty and light, Whose presence I strangely was moved And filled with a sense of delight.

OF THE MEN OF MY YOUTHFUL DREAMS.

Who were pillars of love and truth, But ah! I have learned many things Since those halcyon days of youth.

THEN THE WORLD WAS A WORLD OF LOVE.

Two garden of Eden fair, Filled with flowers that I wish to rove Breathing perfume upon the soft air.

BUT TO-DAY I AM OLD AND DREAM.

Under the blue of the sky, About me on every hand, My youth's air-castles lie.

SHATTERED AND SUNKER BY TIME.

By the lapse of a score of years, By winds from a stormy clime, By blasts from the vale of tears.

AND THE MAIDEN I FONDLY LOVED.

Is laid away in the tomb, And over her grave-grown flowers The roses and lilies bloom.

AND THE YEARS OF WHICH I DREAMED.

With her as my loving wife, Have been passed with a heavy heart And a lonely saddened life.

AND THE PILLARS OF LOVE AND TRUTH.

The men of my youthful dreams, Have vanished like the smoke of a dream, And I am left alone and true.

AND THE WORLD OF BLOOMS AND FLOWERS.

Has been filled with weeds and thorns, And my beautiful blossoming bowers Have been filled with thistles and thorns.

AND INSTEAD OF GLORY AND FAME.

And instead of honor and trust, Since my youth have heard of my name And I still plod along in the dust.

AND THE DARKNESS AND CLOUDS.

That once were a glorious light, Have been replaced by a heavy heart And I have ever dark and night.

—K. G. WOODLICK, Richmond, Ky.

THERE ARE TIMES THAT I AM SADDEN'D.

There are times that I am sadden'd: When I'm left alone, In silent loneliness, When every one is gone, And the wind is ceaseless moaning In mournful monotone.

There are times that I am sadden'd:

When I look down at the sky, And dark clouds are spread across it, No star is seen on high— Not a light is seen to cheer me— All dreary to my eye.

There are times that I am sadden'd:

When I think of my old friends, When I think of my old home, When I think of my old life, When I think of my old love— I would I were a child again, A mother's smiles to know.

There are times that I am sadden'd:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1887.

A paper mill has been established at Lexington.

SHIELDS' ten-cent circus is in Lexington this week.

W. R. STOUTER committed suicide by Boyle county last week.

The Owingville Outlook has changed to a five-column quarto form.

The residence of Robert McAllister, near Stanford, was burned last week.

MR. FRANK WALKER shipped a car load of fine horses to Georgia last week.

MR. W. H. SPAINSHOWER shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati last week.

MRS. SUSAN WEST, aged 67 years, died at Nicholasville, last week, of heart disease.

CHANGES will be made in the running times of the trains on the C. & O. in a few days.

Go to D. M. Bright's for fancy neckwear. If you want something nobody else can accommodate you.

D. M. BRIGHT has the most elegant line of ladies' fine shoes ever brought to Richmond. Call and see them.

In 1860 the State of Kentucky produced one-fourth of the American tobacco crop; in 1886 she produced one-third.

MORE than three hundred persons have signed the temperance pledge in Lexington and the big revival still goes on.

MR. M. C. BAILEY fell from Dykes' new house on Third street last week and was seriously hurt. He was doing the carpenter work.

DR. GARRETT DAVIS HUCKNER, a well-known physician of Lexington, died at a prominent Mason, died of apoplexy on Sunday last week.

For the first time since our jail was built there is not a white man incarcerated. We do hope that this state of things will continue to exist.

THE Salvation Army has been in the neighboring towns but has passed Richmond by. We guess Richmond is thought by them not worth saving.

AMONG those to whom Mexican war pension certificates have been issued in the State of Kentucky is J. Barnes, Richmond; C. M. Clay, White Hall.

JUDGING from the cut in their advertisement they teach left-handed penmanship at the Commercial College, at Lexington. It is a good college, all the same.

JUDGE COLE has decided at Mayeville that "a druggist does not have to obtain a license to sell liquor in good faith for medicinal purposes in this State."

WE shall in the future each week present the corrected market report of Weber, Loper & Co., of Cincinnati, and W. S. Norris, of this county, is with this firm.

THE publication of the list of claims allowed by the County of Claims at its recent session compels us to condense our local matter. However, the list is interesting reading.

A tenant house on the farm of Equire Wm. Willis and occupied by John Willis (col) was destroyed by fire one day last week. All the contents were consumed. Loss about $500.

CLAY & WOODARD, others of the Romney stock farm, Paris, have renewed an offer of $100,000 for the celebrated stallion Hindoo, provided he lives four years after purchase.

WHY not officially number the houses of the city? Individuals have numbered the business houses on First street and the City Council would now do well to take up and extend the work to all parts of the town.

On the night of the 29th ult., about one-third of the town of Booneville was destroyed by fire. The loss of property was considerable as there was little or no insurance.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES will be described by Z. L. White in the American Magazine for June, with portraits and sketches of prominent Congressmen, under the heading of "The Nation's Lawmakers."

PARTIES recently from Wichita, Kansas, report W. O. Riddell & Co., as doing a splendid real estate business in that city and making big money. Col. Riddell says he will come to Kentucky this fall to see his friends here.

THERE was a vocal and instrumental concert given at the Opera House last night for the benefit of the Presbyterian and Christian Churches. It was a decided success in every particular. All who attended expressed themselves delighted with the entertainment.

THE characteristic sketch of New York society and of Knickerbocker families, which Edgar Fawcett is giving in the story of "Olivia Delaplane," is continued and brought down to very recent years in the June number of The American Magazine.

At public, outcry, on Saturday, May 21st, 1887, at 2 o'clock P. M., I will sell my Brick Residence situated on Lancaster avenue. Terms easy and made known on day of sale.

At the same time I will sell a plot of land. MARY S. QUINN.

The following delegates from Madison attended the convention in Louisville last week and helped to nominate J. B. Walker, W. T. Tevis, J. A. Sullivan, W. B. Smith, H. C. Rice, J. D. Mitchell, Hiram Jett, J. J. Embury, J. P. Embury, C. D. Chensault, J. W. Bates.

BAUCUS CHAIN is no more in favor of retaining cheques than are the Richmond people. He says: "The inter-state law promises to make first-class theatrical entertainment exceedingly rare in small towns. The law will raise the rate of railroad travel, but whether it will effect the Uncle Tom's Companies or not, is a question, but it is the sincere wish of a long suffering public that the law will do that heavy fraud up effectually."

MADAM BOBYSHELL, late of Lexington, has a large class in dancing here. She has quite a successful class in Lexington and comes with the highest recommendations from her pupils there. Richmond has for some time been in need of a competent instructor and should not take advantage of the opportunity.

MR. L. SCHLEGEL, the finest photographer in Eastern Kentucky, has established a branch gallery at Stanford, Kentucky, and will be in Lexington this week. He will visit that city each alternate Tuesday and make negatives. Mr. Schlegel's work is so well and favorably known that we feel a liberal patronage to him by the Stanford people is already assured.

NATURAL GAS COMPANY.—All the Stock having been taken in the Richmond Natural Gas Co., a meeting of all the subscribers is desired to be at the Court House on this (Wednesday) morning, May 11th, at 9 o'clock, to organize the Company and elect officers.

Respectfully,
D. P. Armer.

KENTUCKY distillers and planters are beginning to realize that they are losing money by an overproduction of whiskey and tobacco. The crops of both will be somewhat reduced this year, but capital should be more generally invested in live stock and grain, both of which are almost absolutely sure to command fair prices at all times.

THERE was an inter-state meeting of the I. O. O. F. held at Paducah last week. There were representatives from Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio, Tennessee, and Kentucky. Maj. A. J. Reed, D. G. M. of the Grand Lodge, presided over the meeting. The program for a speech, attended and was a most enjoyable meeting and all were delightedly entertained by the hospitable people of Paducah.

THE Louisville races begin to-day and will continue through next week. There will be forty-four races, of which eleven are stakes. There are 597 entries. The principal races are the Kentucky Derby, first; Louisville Ladies' Stakes, second; Alexandria Stakes, third; Kentucky Oaks, fourth; Louisville Cup, fifth; Runnymede Stakes, sixth; Merchants', seventh; Clark, eighth; Elmdorf, ninth; Campaign, tenth.

DANCING CLASS.—Madam Bobysell, of Tennessee, has organized dancing classes here and gives lessons in the Opera House on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings from 8 till 10 o'clock for ladies and gentlemen. Children's class, Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 3 till 5 o'clock. The next meeting will be the children's class this afternoon, and the ladies' and gentlemen's class this evening.

SOME miscreant broke twenty-one window glass out of Mr. Wm. Arnold's house on High street one night last week. Not long since some one broke some very valuable lights out of stores on First street. The officers of the law should ferret this matter to the bottom and punish the offenders severely. Our property should be protected. It is true the city can not afford to have a guard in front of each building but then when someone has committed no pains should be spared to find out the guilty party and punish him as he deserves.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—One day last week Dr. J. W. McGarvey, whilst driving on the pike that leads from Lexington to Georgetown, met with quite a serious accident. The horse became frightened and backed the vehicle over an embankment, upsetting it. The horse then ran and Dr. McGarvey being caught in the running gear was dragged some distance. His left shoulder was dislocated and the ligaments of one arm torn loose. His wounds are exceedingly painful and he will be confined to his room for some time.

THE "MAN-BEAR."—Two traveling men, one of them calling himself Dr. Buckley and managing the entertainment, were in town a few days ago with a topan nature which they term the "man-bear." It was a human being of unnatural form, though the resemblance to the bear was not at all striking or marked. The poor fellow reminds one more of a cripple and an object to be pitied and tenderly cared for rather than one to be taken about for money to be exhibited to public criticism for the few dimes which his managers are receiving for the tickets sold.

JOHN CORNELISON RELEASED.—A dispatch from Mt. Sterling on the 5th inst. says: "Quite a sensation was caused here this evening by the dismissal of John Cornelison from the county jail on a writ of habeas corpus, tried before Equire Stoffer, he being the highest court official in the county, the Circuit Court, and City Judge being absent at the State Convention. Much speculation is indulged in as to how the Court of Appeals will regard Stoffer's action. Some think he will be tried for contempt of court." Only a few days ago it was announced that Mr. Cornelison was collecting material for a book which he proposes to write, entitled "The True History of a Suicide."

LATER.—Squire Stoffer has been arrested on a charge of aiding and abetting a person to escape from the county jail, and held in $500 bond.

THURSDAY night the burglar who is clumsily "doing" the town was at Mrs. Fox's residence, on Harborsburg street. The cook, who sleeps in the room over the kitchen, thought she heard some person in her room and started to strike a match in order to see, when a man spoke out with a threat that he would blow her brains out. He made light, and at the same time demanded of her to give up any money she had. The woman sprang from her bed and rushing through the door, ran to Mr. McRoberts' room, on the first floor of the house, and aroused him. A search was made for the robber, but he had fled, leaving behind a handkerchief, a pipe and an overcoat. He had entered through a window opening on a shed. But the boldest act of the fellow yet remains to be solved. The fellow had taken the overcoat into the kitchen when he was seen to prepare breakfast the following morning, and after starting a fire in the stove she left the kitchen for a time. The burglar, who had evidently been lurking about the premises, saw his opportunity, and slipping into the kitchen possessed himself of his coat and departed without being seen. Danville Advocate.

WE have received word from the managers that the following well-known speakers among others will be present at the Kentucky Chautauqua at Lexington: Rev. Sam P. Jones, W. I. Marshall, of New York, Dr. Milburn, "The blind man eloquent," Mr. Wallace Brown, of New York, Prof. K. A. Proctor, the astronomer, from England, Mr. J. DeWitt Miller, of Philadelphia, Dr. Willets, Mr. F. A. Ober, the Mexican and South American traveler, etc. In addition a great speaker will be present for Tennessee Day, a well-known Congressman on National Day. The Sunday-school work will be conducted by Dr. Wishard, of Danville, Prof. McClintock, of Richmond, Mrs. Harris, of Brooklyn, and others. The Secular Normal will be in charge of State Board of Education. The music will be conducted by Prof. Case, of Cleveland, one of Chautauque's Musical Directors.

AN UNPARALLELED CASE.—On last Thursday afternoon Mr. Frank E. Piper came to Richmond to put up $250, the amount of bail held against Ed Stokes, the circus man held in jail here charged with murder. He had at once to see Mr. Stokes' lawyers, but found both out of town. He then went to the jail to tender the amount of the bond and secure the release of the prisoner, and the jailer at once started out to look up the proper authority to receive the money and give an order for the prisoner's release. He found the Deputy Marshal and began asking for the officials, but it was found that the Police Judge, Mayor, majority of the City Council, City Attorney, County Judge, County Attorney, Trustee of the State Fund and every official authorized to take a bond in any case whatever, were absent from the city. However, Police Judge Rice returned on the eight o'clock train and received the money and released the prisoner.

THE Madison County Bible Association held its annual meeting at the Presbyterian church on last Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. In absence of the Chairman, Dr. Savage, of Covington, presided. This society has done fair work in our midst during the past year. But there is much that is still to be accomplished. The people of this county should contribute liberally to the sustenance and the furtherance of the objects of this society, for in our opinion there is nothing that redounds as largely toward the elevation of the morals of the masses. It reaches a class of individuals that never listen to a minister's voice or even attend church. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. D. McClintock, of Paducah; Vice President, W. G. White, of Paducah; Secretary, W. L. Arnold, of Paducah; Treasurer, T. T. Covington, of Paducah; J. A. Bennett, B. J. Clay, H. L. White, Executive Committee.

ROBT M. HARRIS' WILL.—The will of Robert M. Harris was offered for probate by Stephen D. Parrish in the Jefferson County Court, last Friday, and after being proven by the attesting witnesses, Dr. H. W. Bright and A. W. Logan, and admitted to record. The will is as follows:

"I, Robert M. Harris, being of sound mind and disposing memory, desiring to make final disposition of all my worldly affairs in view of an early death, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament:

First.—After my death I desire that my just and honest debts of every kind be paid.

Second.—I will and bequeath to my sister, Nannette Willis, one dollar in cash.

Third.—I will and bequeath to my beloved mother all the residue of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description, to be hers forever.

Fourth.—I appoint my mother to be the executrix of this my last will and testament, and request that she be permitted to act as such without bond or security."

A RAD ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred at Spring Station, Woodford county, Sunday morning, of a very sad nature. Miss Henrietta Hempstead, a beautiful and lovely young lady of nineteen years, lost her life at the farm of her uncle, Captain Jas. Blackburn, ex-Secretary of State and brother to Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, under the following circumstances: She, in company with her cousin, Miss Henrietta Blackburn, was out for a walk with a small rifle. They were joined by Samuel Blackburn, a young man of twenty-two, brother of Miss Henrietta Blackburn, and a friendly contention was begun as to who should shoot at the mark first. The three engaged in a playful struggle for the rifle, and in this struggle the weapon was discharged, the ball piercing the heart of Miss Henrietta Hempstead, and killing her instantly. The unfortunate young lady gave a slight scream, fell upon the blue-grass and breathed her last before her cousins could realize the awful calamity that had befallen them. Messengers were hurried off for medical and other assistance, and it was with the utmost difficulty that Miss Blackburn and Miss Hempstead's mother could be restored from the shock occasioned by the unexpected and terrible death of the young lady. Miss Hempstead was a great favorite in the community.
